Prelude Steven Cornwell
Bringing in the Light Brinely and Becket Milne
Welcome / Announcements Rev. Laura Guy
Call to Worship Kathy Hamilton

Jesus still preaches good news to the poor, still proclaims liberation to all who are imprisoned, and recovery of sight for all who cannot or will not see. Jesus still works to set the oppressed free. We know that we have been poor in spirit, imprisoned by sin and blinded by our own selfishness. As we worship, may we be set free indeed.

Scripture Reading
GROW READ IMAGINE PRAY

Rev 21: 3-7, NIV

And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Look! God's dwelling place is now among the people, and he will dwell with them. They will be his people, and God himself will be with them and be their God. 'He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death' or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away."

He who was seated on the throne said, "I am making everything new!" Then he said, "Write this down, for these words are trustworthy and true."

He said to me: "It is done. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. To the thirsty I will give water without cost from the spring of the water of life. Those who are victorious will inherit all this, and I will be their God and they will be my children.
